

Communicate and Manage Conflicts using Emotional Awareness

Sustainable Relationship Development 1/3

TRAINING:

- HEALTH Sector
- Intra-company
- Full-day training
- 4 to 12 participants
- No experience necessary

OBJECTIVES:

- Become empowered to find a stable and balanced position, when faced with difficulties
- Develop recognition and understanding of the emotions, to respond aptly to verbal aggression
- Enhance listening skills, to better meet the needs of patients, co-workers, etc.

PARTICIPANTS:

Nurses, doctors, medical aides, management, administration, lab technicians, specialists...

CONTENT, TOOLS:

- "4-Square" centering method & how to develop one's own approach to getting centered
- Micro-expressions: detecting and understanding emotions to improve relationships with patients, team and oneself
- Posture and listening training through Verbal stretching exercises
- 7 Verbal Aikido™ techniques: understanding others better in order to propose balanced outcomes
- Application and adaptation of tools based on real cases of conflict

FRAMEWORK AND APPROACH:

The workshop is organized around the needs of the participants. Theoretical aspects are covered at a rhythm that corresponds to the group. The facilitators focus on practice and reflex development, to ensure the veritable acquisition of techniques.

PRICE: 1100€ / day*

*Excl. taxes & travel expenses

Also available as an inter-company training.

Contact us.

ACV (Acquired Competence Validation):

An optional practice day may be scheduled after completion of the initial training module. The ACV session enables the participants to validate their application of the acquired knowledge, providing them with a certificate, further valorising their learning experience.